NOBEL PEACE PRIZE 2014

She was born on 12th July 1997 and she is a Pakistani activist for female education who lived in Mingora during her chilhood with her Muslim family. Her parents are Ziauddin and Tor Peka and her younger brothers, Khushal and Atal.

The Talibans occupying Pakistan banned girls from going to school; some schools were closed and some were destroyed. As a consequence, at the age of 11, Malala wrote a blog to express her feelings and fights for her rights.

An afternoon on 9th October 2012 the girls took the bus to school and she was shot three times. Luckily she could recover from the attack and became the most famous teenager in the world. She then, kept on fighting for the access to education and other human rights.

Because of her activism Malala won the 2014 Nobel Peace Prize. She was the youngest person to win a prize.
